

GRAY SOX WIN ONE, LOSE TWO

The Chicago Defender (Big Weekend Edition) (1905-1966); Aug 7, 1920;
ProQuest Historical Newspapers: Chicago Defender
pg. 6

Montgomery in second. Steel Arm Dickey, with 26 straight victories to his credit, suffered his first defeat of the season. His failure to field a bout, his wild throw to first and a dropped fly ball by Fletcher Mosby, all in the first game, gave the Sox a 3 run lead. It looked as though the Giants might win with the bases full, but Mason lightened. That was in the first game. July 31 Dickey came back and made good by defeating the visitors. The score:
Gray Sox 3 2 0 0 0 0 0 0—5 5 2
Knox Giants 1 1 1 0 0 0 0 0—3 8 5
Batteries—Dickey and Saunders; Mason and Williams.

July 30—
Gray Sox 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—1 2 1
Knox Giants 1 0 1 0 0 0 0 1—3 4 0
Batteries—Fence and Saunders; Streeter and Preton.
July 31—
Gray Sox 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0—1 2 3
Knox Giants 1 0 0 2 0 0 0 0—5 1 0
Batteries—Dickey and Saunders, Morn and Williams.

GRAY SOX WIN ONE, LOSE TWO

Knoxville, Tenn., Aug. 6.—The Knoxville Giants lost the first game of a three game series, but managed to annex the following two from the Montgomery Gray Sox. There was plenty of pep in all three games. The Dixie Jazz Band furnished the music. These victories placed Knoxville in first place and