

Nashville Elites Divide Two With Lincoln Highways

Nashville, Tenn., Aug. 18.—The Nashville Elite Giants divided with the Indianapolis Lincoln Highway baseball club after causing them to go ten innings to win the first game.

Jim Willis, the Elite Giants' ace, pitched a great game of ball and struck out 11 men, but was forced out of the game in the 10th when he was injured sliding home. Sid Wright replaced Willis with the scored tied, 5 to 5, and allowed three hits and two runs.

Deckers and Williams each got home runs.

The second game ended in the sixth inning on account of darkness, the Elites winning, 3 to 2.

L. Williams cracked out a double in the sixth that brought Blackwell in with the winning run.
